

Lakeview Boys Continue to Build Momentum at Taylor Invite

The Lakeview Middle School boys cross country team put together a strong performance at the Taylor Invite, showing the determination and teamwork that has been a hallmark of the Tigers' season.

Magnus Granger led the way for Lakeview, finishing 14th overall in 11:02.59. Krishna Puthucode followed with an impressive 30th-place finish in 11:49.04, while Asher Brenneman crossed the line in 34th at 11:59.23.

Henry Gough, Theo Yoder, Bronson Schuh, and Ezzy Shively also turned in solid performances, finishing between 12:04 and 12:42.

The Tigers' depth continued to shine, with Oliver Grossman, Weston Boyer, Jude Stump, Will Bechtold, and Kendrick Kuhn also competing hard for Lakeview with a massive PR.

With runners continuing to improve and push one another, the Lakeview boys are building valuable momentum as the season progresses. Their effort, depth, and team-first attitude are exciting signs of what this group can accomplish.

Great job, Tigers! Keep working, keep improving, and keep running together!

Lakeview Girls Make a Statement at the Taylor Invite

The Lakeview Middle School girls cross country team turned in an impressive performance at the Taylor Invite, competing head-to-head with #5 and #8 teams in the state from last season—Summit Middle School and Woodside Middle School.

Lakeview showed right from the start that they belonged among the best. London Kinsey led the Tigers with an outstanding 2nd-place finish in 11:51.81, followed closely by teammate Makenzie Warner, who finished 3rd in 12:02.15. Franki Rastrelli added another top-10 performance, placing 7th in 12:17.20.

The Tigers' depth was equally impressive. Avery Davis finished 12th, Londyn Pixton 13th, and Penelope Hill 14th, giving Lakeview an incredible six runners in the top 14. Lucy Purdy also turned in a strong race, finishing 18th in 12:55.44.

Adding to an already impressive day, Lakeview broke its own team course record from last year, posting a remarkable combined time of 1:00:52.92. The performance is a testament to the Tigers' hard work, depth, and commitment to improving together.

Against teams with established state-level success, Lakeview's performance was a powerful indication of the progress this team is making. The Tigers demonstrated speed, depth, and—most importantly—a commitment to racing together as a team.

This wasn't just a good race for Lakeview—it was a statement. The Tigers are ready to compete with the best.
